

Contact Us

Waste Processing Facility

Animal Poultry Waste Management Center

NC STATE

Animal & Poultry
Management
Annual Report

November 2006

November 2007

December 2007

The Challenge

Animal agriculture in the United States and many parts of the world faces a challenge. If producers are to prosper, they must employ methods of managing the by-products they generate -- the manure, litter, mortalities, hatchery and processing plant offal, and wastewater -- that are at the same time environmentally sound, socially acceptable and economically feasible.

The Animal and Poultry Waste Management Center at North Carolina State University was established to answer this challenge.

Environmental Technologies per Agreement
the N.C. Attorney
General
Smithfield
Premium Sausages and Frontline

Present

EXHIBIT

57